Parent Information Sheet

Classes are held each Monday and Thursday (excluding holidays) unless there is an illness or other occurrence that requires cancellation. If there is a cancellation, the class will be made up at a later date. We will do everything we can to contact you prior to cancellation, but it's not always possible.

Our classes are ongoing, so regular attendance is strongly recommended. We will be working on routines in preparation for performances and competitions throughout the year. Dancers are NOT REQUIRED to perform however, performance opportunities are based on attendance. Dancers who do not attend class, purchase costumes, etc will not be allowed to participate in performances.
