The General Plan Steering Committee meeting is a public forum where, depending on the agenda item, the Steering Committee may receive comment and recommendations from the public, applicable agencies and County staff regarding the creation of the general plan and other items on the Committee's agenda. In addition, it is where the Steering Committee takes action on these items, which may include recommendation to other bodies as applicable.

Emigration Metro Township is holding a General Plan Steering Committee Meeting. You are invited to attend and voice your comments.

- 1) Brainstorm other people to brain in for future steering meetings (Eric Hawks and water quality)
- 2) Develop questions/possibilities of noxious weed ordinance for Emigration Canyon
- 3) Updates and insights form the steering committee
