

Be a Camp Counselor For one week - June 2022 And it will change your life!

Camp HOPE America - Utah is a year-round camping and mentoring program for youth whose lives have been impacted by domestic violence, sexual assault, and child abuse. Our mission is to help our youth find pathways to HOPE and healing.

You Can Empower Utah children by volunteering with Camp HOPE as a Youth Counselor.

Give HOPE!

Youth Counselors needed for a 5-day summer camp in the Uintah National Forest.

Training, lodging, food, transportation, and T-shirt included at no charge.

"Camp HOPE helped me realize I'm not alone. I love it here and want to share that love with everyone." ~ Youth Camper

Camp HOPE America - Utah Volunteer Application

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in becoming a volunteer for Camp HOPE America - Utah, a program of the Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office. We take the process of finding volunteers very seriously because we care deeply about our participants and the kind of guidance and love that they receive during their week of camp. We are looking for individuals who are encouraging, empathetic, kind, sensitive, patient, and adventurous. We look forward to learning more about you to see if you might be a good fit for our mission.
