Notice of Valuation and Tax Changes Information

If you have questions on your property taxes, proposed tax increases from entities within the county (school districts, municipalities, and other districts), and instructions on how to appeal your property value, please visit the Salt Lake County Auditor's Property Tax Information Page.

The Auditor's office sends a Notice of Valuation and Tax Changes out each year to let residents know the assessed value of their property and proposed tax rates from taxing entities in the county. Find yours online here.

The Auditor's office is merely letting you know which taxing entities within Salt Lake County are proposing increased tax rates. Please note that your NOV Notice of Valuation is not a bill and does not have any applicable tax relief programs that might have been agreed to with the Treasurer's Office – contact them with any questions.

You can file an appeal of your property's value with the Salt Lake County Auditor through the Board of Equalization until the date shown on your notice; this can be mailed, filed online, or dropped off at our office.

In addition, the table below contains a full list of proposed tax increases from entities within Salt Lake County along with public hearing information regarding those increases. Taxpayers should review specific taxing entities' notices for current updates and changes on scheduled public meetings or hearings related to property tax increases.

Still have questions? Reach out to the Auditor's office at propertytaxappeals@slco.org or 385-468-7200.

SALT LAKE COUNTY NOTICE OF PROPOSED TAX INCREASES

The following taxing entities are proposing to increase property tax revenues within SALT LAKE COUNTY.

Data is based on the taxing entity's average value shown below. The same value is used for both residential and commercial properties.

Concerned citizens are invited to attend the public hearings on their tax increases.
