On October 1, 1986, an investigative panel to the Salt Lake County Commission met to address the allegations of sexual harassment brought against Ted Cannon, the County Attorney (Full report can be found in the Salt Lake County Commission Minutes Book, pages 1217-1221). After reviewing the facts, the panel concluded that "the actions of Mr. Cannon did constitute verbal and physical conduct of a sexual nature in violation of Salt Lake County policy" (p.1220). The panel recommended that Mr. Cannon no longer serve as the County Attorney. Mr. William R. Hyde was appointed to serve as Acting County Attorney for the duration of Ted Cannon's term (3 months). October 15, 1986 was the last day that Ted Cannon was recorded as being the County Attorney. By October 20, William R. Hyde is the "Acting County Attorney." Then on November 19, David E. Yocom became the Acting County Attorney.
