DEFINITIONS

1. Your property's fair market value as determined by the County Assessor.
2. Your proposed property taxes based on assessed fair market value.
3. If you do not agree with the assessed fair market value from the assessor, you can file an appeal with the Salt Lake County Auditor through the Board of Equalization until date shown.
4. Taxing entities. These taxes pay for the cost of public services.
5. This section shows your proposed charges by taxing entity to cover their services:
 - Rate column: Percentage rate to be paid to each entity.
 - Tax Value column: The Taxable Value of your property after exemptions (i.e. residential exemption) have been applied to your property's Market Value.
 - Tax ($) column: Amount to be paid to each entity.
6. Prior and current comparison of rates and amounts charged by entity and grand totals.
 - Prior years' Rate and Tax($) columns: Rates and amounts paid to each tax entity the prior year.
 - Current Rate and Tax($) columns: Rates and amounts to be paid to each tax entity if all proposed tax increases pass for the current year.
7. This section shows a list of date, time and place where entities proposing tax increases will hold a public hearing to explain their increases.
8. This column shows assessed Fair Market Value; any reductions (i.e. residential exemption) and Total Taxable Value.
9. This column shows proposed Market value, Exemption reduction applied and final Taxable value of your property.
10. This column shows prior years' Market value, Exemption reduction applied and final Taxable value of your property.
