(v) was an alien who was illegally or unlawfully in the United States.

THIS INFORMATION IS BASED ON EVIDENCE OBTAINED FROM THE FOLLOWING WITNESSES:

AFFIDAVIT OF PROBABLE CAUSE:

Your Affiant Bases Probable Cause Upon the Following:

On or about July 5, 2012, Officer Emery of the Salt Lake City Police Department responded to 216 South Douglas Street and located Steven Killpack. Officer Emery observed injuries and blood on Mr. Killpack. Mr. Killpack stated that he had been stabbed “by a burglar” while at his home, 1212 East 200 South, in Salt Lake County, State of Utah. Officers observed multiple stab and slash wounds to Killpack’s head, face, and body. Killpack was transported to the hospital in critical condition, but survived his injuries.

While Officer Emery was at 216 South Douglas Street, Tom D. Smith approached and stated that he had observed a male walking west bound on 200 South. Mr. Smith stated that the male was covered in blood. Officer Emery went to 200 South and located a male covered in a large amount of blood. Officer Emery did not observe any injuries on the male. The male was identified as the defendant, Mathew Christopher Wall.

Officers with the Salt Lake City Police Department entered Killpack’s home and located large amounts of blood on the floor and walls of the kitchen. In the kitchen sink, officers located two knives: a large carving knife and a lock-blade-style folding knife with the blade open. The blades of both knives appeared to be stained with blood.

In an interview with police from his hospital bed, Killpack told police that he awoke in his home at approximately 6:30 in the morning of July 5, 2012, and discovered an uninvited male intruder in his home office who was disconnecting wires from Killpack’s computer. Killpack also observed that several pictures had been removed from the walls and that some of the pictures had been removed from their frames. Killpack confronted the intruder and asked the intruder why he was in Killpack’s home and why he was attempting to remove Killpack's property. The intruder spoke to Killpack and provided Killpack with his personal contact information, including information about how to contact his family and his attorney. As Killpack was attempting to verify this information, the intruder attacked Killpack, first stabbing him in the stomach, and then in the head and neck. After being stabbed multiple times, Killpack was able to push the intruder away, and the intruder ran out of Killpack's residence.

The defendant, Matthew Wall, was interviewed by Detective Washington. After being advised of his Miranda rights, Matthew Wall stated that he entered the residence at 1212 East 200 South in the early morning hours of July 5, 2012, and slept at the residence for some time. The defendant also told police that in the morning of July 5, 2012, the he was confronted by and fought with an "old man" at the residence who was upset because the defendant had "messed with" his paintings. The defendant told police that the knives were still inside the 1212 East 200 South residence. Matthew also admitted to taking apart a computer in the residence.

The defendant, Matthew Wall, was convicted of Attempted Burglary on January 10, 2011, under Third District Court Number 101909004, and is therefore a Category I Restricted Person.

Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 78B-5-705 (2008) I declare under criminal penalty of the State of Utah that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my belief and knowledge.
