SALT LAKE COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY SIM GILL DETERMINES TAYLORSVILLE POLICE USE OF FORCE JUSTIFIED

Salt Lake City, UT | Today, Salt Lake County District Attorney Sim Gill informed Chief Del Craig, Taylorsville City Police Department of the results of the DA's Office review of the investigation of the use of deadly force by Officer Brett Miller against Bryan W. Manseau on March 1, 2012, at 4790 South 4900 West, Kearns, Utah. As outlined in the accompanying letter to Chief Craig, the DA's Office concluded that Officer Miller's use of force was justified under Utah State law.

The Office of the Salt Lake County District Attorney, Sim Gill, Salt Lake County District Attorney is required by Utah State law, and operates pursuant to an agreement with participating law enforcement agencies, consistent with established protocols and applicable law, to perform joint investigations and independent reviews of officer involved critical incidents, including police officers' use of deadly (including potentially deadly) force used in the scope of police officers' official duties.

The findings and conclusions of the above referenced incident, as supported by the facts developed during the joint investigation of the incident are contained in the accompanying letter to Chief Craig.

Inquiries regarding this matter should be directed to District Attorney Sim Gill via the contact information above.

All persons accused of a criminal offense are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty in a court of law.
