|------|--|-------------------|
| I. | Welcome | Mayor Ben McAdams |
| II. | Overview of the Meeting | Fraser Nelson |
| | Developing a common agenda is a critical early step in any collective impact effort. We will spend this morning determining our collective vision | |
| III. | Defining our common agenda
Please work in your small group to: | Small group work |
| | 1. Respond to the draft common agenda. | 5 minutes |
| | We are committed to creating an integrated, efficient, and effective system to end homelessness in Salt Lake County. We will use our collective expertise and data to design systems that provide access to safe, affordable housing and the supportive services that are a pathway from homelessness to success. | |
| | 2. 'Backcast' this vision: | 15 minutes |
| | Project yourself into the future. The vision has been reached. Use the flip carts to describe: - When we reach our Collective vision; what will it LOOK like, FEEL like, and SOUND like? Think of a few things for each. | |
| | 3. Determine possible indicators | 15 minutes |
| | How will we know our vision has become a reality? Again, please be specific. (See HUD System Performance Measures for an example of system level indicators; length of time homeless, number of people experiencing homelessness, returns to homelessness, etc.). | |
| | 4. Prepare report to whole | 5 minutes |
| IV. | Report to the Steering Committee | 15 minutes |
| | Each group has 3 minutes to share their vision of the Common Agenda, and the indicators it will take to reach their vision | |
| V. | Reaction | 5 minutes |
| VI. | Introduction to Continuum of Care | 15 minutes |
| VII. | Adjourn | |
